

COMMUNITY-QUENCHER DONATION POLICY

Trails to Ales Brewery wants to be an integral part of the community by donating to worthy causes. The Brewery will donate 3% of beer sales of a specific beer in a specific month to nonprofit organizations within our community who complete this application. We are taking the extra steps to insure as many organizations can participate as possible and to be as fair as possible. Once your application is received and approved you will be assigned one of our craft beers and a particular month as your beer of the month. At the end of your month you will receive a check for 3% of your beer sales in that month. Currently only one application per year as available however if the program is successful we will expand it. Applications must be for a specific cause within the organization.
